All -

I tried a table this time....not sure I am a huge fan of it - but oh well. I tried to add some of the info from Joanna/Gary, but they is still the best resource for information about the residents -

We have several residents that ARE NOT allowing splits this week (3) - I have 'bolded' them for easy reference. We are down to about 10 residents that we are attempting to schedule so I am not expecting that the week of the 13th will be as busy as this one. thanks -
